

REMARKS

Claims 1-8, 10-17, and 19-26 are pending in the application. In the final Office Action of January 8, 2008, the Examiner rejected claims 1-8, 10-17, and 19-26 under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being allegedly unpatentable over Angles et al. (U.S. Patent No. 5,933,811) (“Angles”) in view of Prust (U.S. Patent No. 6,735,623) (“Prust”). Applicants respectfully traverse the rejection and address the Examiner’s disposition below.

Applicants’ independent claims 1, 10, and 19 each claims subject matter relating to a content managing portion counting the period for which each content is stored or linked in each user area and creates a database containing the counted values. In other words, the content managing portion keeps track of how long a content is stored or linked in a user’s storage area.

This is clearly unlike Angles in view of Prust, which fails to disclose or suggest counting the period for which each content is stored or linked in each user area and creates a database containing the counted values. The Examiner argues that Angles 14:19-23 or 15:65-16:7 teaches this claimed subject matter. However, the cited passages fails to teach or suggest that Angles keeps track of how long a content is stored or linked. Instead, the cited passages describes that Angles keeps track of a number of other, different data items, none of which is the period for which a content is stored or linked:

which advertisements are viewed by consumers, how often the advertisements are viewed, which consumers have viewed an advertisement, the number and type of advertisements a particular consumer has viewed, which content providers are requesting customized advertisements, the number and type of advertisements which are being displayed by a particular content provider computer.

Angles 16:1-7.

Unlike Applicants’ claimed invention nowhere does Angles teach or suggest counting the period for which each content is stored or linked in each user area and creates a database containing the counted values. Further, nowhere does Prust suggest this claimed subject matter.

Accordingly, Angles in view of Prust fails to disclose or suggest claims 1, 10, and 19.

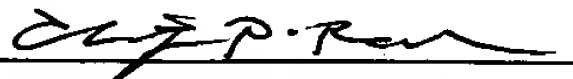

Claims 2-8, 11-17 and 20-26 depend directly or indirectly from claims 1, 10 or 19 and are therefore allowable for at least the same reasons that claims 1, 10 and 19 are allowable.

Applicants respectfully submit the rejection has been overcome and request that it be withdrawn.

CONCLUSION

In view of the foregoing, it is submitted that claims 1-8, 10-17, and 19-26 are patentable. It is therefore submitted that the application is in condition for allowance. Notice to that effect is respectfully requested.

Respectfully submitted,

 (Reg. No. 45,034)
